

FREE SCHOOL MEALS AND TRAVEL ASSISTANCE

Low income families in receipt of Free School Meals or the Maximum level of Working Tax Credit can obtain travel assistance if their child is attending any of the three nearest qualifying schools to their address and the school is more than 2 miles and less than 6 miles from home. A uniform grant of up to £100 every two years is also available for those in receipt of Free School Meals. It is important to claim for Free School Meals as not only will it benefit the family but also the school.

Will my child qualify for Free School Meals?

- To get free school meals you must be in receipt of one of the following qualifying benefits:
- Income Support (IS) or Child Tax Credit
- Income-Based Job Seeker' Allowance (IB JSA) or
- Employment Support Allowance (Income Related) (ASA)(IRA) or
- Guaranteed Element of Pension Credit
- Support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Working Tax Credit 'run-on' payment (paid for four weeks after you stop qualifying for Working Tax Credit)

Where a parent is entitled to Working Tax Credit during the four-week period immediately after their employment ceases, or after they start to work less than 16 hours per week, their children are entitled to free school meals.
