

Privacy Notice – School Workforce

(How we use school workforce information)

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number, address)
- special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- disciplinary information (such as official warnings)
- medical information (such as doctors information, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- payroll information (such as bank details)

This list is not exhaustive, to access the current list of categories of information we process please see <http://highcliffe.school/l/datamap>

Why we collect and use this information

The vast majority of personal data is collected in order for the school to fulfil their official functions and meet legal obligations, which includes special category data

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services including the impact of staff absence
- allocate budget to continued professional development/training

The lawful basis on which we process this information

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis' we rely on for processing student information for general purposes are:

- Public task
- Legitimate interests
- Vital interests

We also comply with the law (Legal obligation), in terms of what information we need to pass on to other organisations including the Department for Education – see 'who we share student information with' section below for specific legislation.

In addition, concerning any special category data:

- conditions a, b, c and d of GDPR - Article 9

Collecting this information

We obtain staff information via registration forms with regular updates undertaken.

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing this information

We hold school workforce data for 6 years after contract end.

Who we share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- Local Authority
- HR and Payroll providers to allow payment of staff
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

To contact the department: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact Simon Fuller, Data Protection Officer

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Further information

If you would like to discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact:

Global Policing Ltd
Unit 2
The Pavilions
Bridge Hall Drive
Bury
BL9 7NX
Tel: 0161 212 1680
Email: info@globalpolicing.co.uk