Monday 11th - Friday 15th June 2012: Week B

Thought For The Week
Wisdom begins in wonder - Socrates

Literacy -Reading Skills

Before doing a piece of research on a topic, ask yourself some questions about the topic beforehand. Think carefully about what you want to find out. Write down some questions on the points you want to find out. After that, begin researching the topic. Why is it better write out some questions first rather than go straight into the research?

Peer Mentoring (Hear4U): The first training day will be held on Friday 15th June at Leeson House when the new Peer Mentors will undergo intensive training on a whole range of issues. We look forward to working with another great team of students! Mrs Stone, Mrs Dedman, Mrs King and Mr Prodomo.

Professional Dance Workshop: Year 10 GCSE and Year 12 BTEC Dance students will be participating in an all-day dance workshop at Pavilion Dance in Bournemouth on Wednesday 13th June. Please could the students involved meet in the Dance Studio at 8.45am. We will be returning, exhausted, at 3.00pm. Students are reminded to collect and catch up with work missed. Mrs Wills.

Pavilion Dance Showcase Performance Saturday 16th June @ 5.00pm: Students from Years 7 to 14 are performing at the Pavilion Dance Centre in Bournemouth. The Year 13-14 BTEC Dance students have been rehearsing for their final choreography assessment 'In between the lines' with the performers since January. If you would like to support the students tickets priced at £5.00 can be purchased via the Pavilion Dance website: www.paviliondance.org.uk or by calling 01202 203630. 'Break a leg' to all those involved! Mrs Wills.

Numeracy Challenge

At a party for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, one-half drank only lemonade, one-third drank only cola, fifteen people drank neither, and nobody drinks both.

How many people were at the party?

Answers to be placed in the box in MA7 by Friday 15th June

The winner of the last Numeracy Challenge was Finlay Graham in 7.3 - well done, Finlay!
