

Highcliffe School Student Bulletin

Monday 17th - Friday 21st September 2012: Week A

Thought For The Week:

If you only have a hammer, you tend to see every problem as a nail. - Abraham Maslow

Literacy Focus

1. Punctuate this sentence: Charles I walked and talked half an hour after his head was cut off.
2. What's the difference between: "Thank you. John" and "Thank you, John" ?
3. Why isn't this a sentence? Clearing away the debris after the earthquake.
4. Why is this a sentence? After leaving school she went home.
5. What's the problem with this sentence? despite his best efforts, he still couldn't get to london for the match.

Are you checking that EVERY sentence makes sense? Are you checking that ALL SENTENCES end with a FULL STOP or, if necessary, a QUESTION MARK or EXCLAMATION MARK and start with a CAPITAL LETTER?
