Focus on Connectives

CONNECTIVES FOR DEVELOPING AND EXPANDING POINTS

One way in which you can PUSH YOURSELF in your writing is to show that you are not satisfied with making one simple explanation and that you are willing to develop ideas when appropriate. This shows RESILIENCE and RESOURCEFULNESS. Here are some connectives that can help students develop points:

Furthermore,

In addition to that ...

Make sure you use them in your writing when being asked to give explanations and develop ideas.

SPELLING

In the student planner there is a “Word Wall” on which students can write troublesome spellings. If you have corrected a spelling, students should write the word on their word wall so they can practise it. The “Word Wall” is on page 183.

SPELLING OF THE WEEK

environment

Example: We must look after the environment

Write it on page.... of your organiser.

Words with silent or unclear letters:

A Way to Remember: Use the spelling of the root word. Sound out clearly.

The environ + ment is important.

Practise finding the root word that makes the larger word.

Meet author Jason Rohan

Highcliffe School Thursday 3rd March at break-time in the library.

As part of the school's World Book Day celebrations on Thursday 3rd March 2016; we are delighted to announce that published author Jason Rohan will be visiting the School. He will be giving two interactive workshops on what it is to be an author and how to write creatively.

At break time Jason will be in the school Library to answer any questions that students may have. This will also be an opportunity for students to purchase signed copies of either of Jason's books at the price of £4.20. This is 40% off the recommended retail price. Of course there is no obligation for any student to purchase a book. The books are available on Wisepay and students will receive the signed book on the day. There will also be some available to buy on the day.

Copies of the first chapter of Jason's debut novel, the Sword of Kuromori, are available in the Library for students to read. This will whet their appetite before World Book Day. (Students who have already read this chapter have really enjoyed it and are looking forward to reading more)

Praise for Jason includes:

'For lovers of action adventure, The Sword of Kuromori combines Japanese mythology with a modern setting, in which our hero and a kick-ass girl battle demons; distinguished by witty repartee and a vivid, expert knowledge of Japan and its culture.'

Nicolette Jones Sunday Times

'Present day Tokyo provides the setting for this furiously paced and entertaining adventure story. This debut author ups the thrill content by introducing a range of mythical Japanese monsters as our hero - ably supported by a motorbike-riding female sidekick - battles to stop a catastrophe, never sure of who he can trust.' Guardian Best New Children's Books, Summer 2014
