The Best Words. In the Best Place.

This week's "Word of the Week" is ...

Complacent

What does "complacent" mean? Does it mean ...?

- 1/ To be constantly annoyed.
- 2/ To be too satisfied with your achievements or situation.
- 3/ To be guilty of helping out with a crime

What is the noun?

Complacency

Answer:

"Complacent" means ...

2/ To be too satisfied with your achievements or situation.

Examples:

A: I got all level 7s in my mocks, so I think I'll be fine for the real thing.

B: I think you're being complacent.

Critical Thinking – apply

In what situations might someone become complacent?

How can you address complacency?

How would you advise someone who is complacent?

Commendation Opportunities:

You might understand the meaning of this word now, but can you use it?

Try and use this word in class in writing or in speech. You might get commended for an effective use of it!

Break-through commendation: If you use it incorrectly first time, but try again, you might receive a break-through commendation!

Art Competition

Saturday 30th June

Stanpit Village Hall

Just a reminder that if you wish to enter our art competition please bring your artwork to Stanpit Village Hall on Saturday 30th June where a selection of canvasses will be chosen to be displayed at the Mudeford Arts Festival in July. The final winner will be chosen by public vote and a photographic image of their work will be displayed for a whole year in the showcase outside the village hall. The winner will also get an opportunity to host their own art exhibition for a whole weekend, free of charge.

To register your interest and for more details please visit our website www.stanpitvillagehall.co.uk or call Tracy Wright 07889 217925 or Aline Holdsworth 01202 986220

We look forward to receiving your entries
