General Notices

RFU Information: Advice & Resources for everyone involved in Rugby (JDN)

The RFU has a range of information on their website to help ensure players have their rugby journey supported. Concussion has been well publicised and in that regard it would be well worth ensuring you have watched this video. <http://www.englandrugby.com/my-rugby/players/player-health/concussion-headcase/> If you are involved in Rugby in any form that's fantastic, I truly believe it's a wonderful sport!

Charity update (HPN)

The current Year 9, whilst in Year 8, took part in an inter-tutor charity competition to raise money for Macmillan Caring Locally. This is an independent charity for patients receiving care and support in the Macmillan Unit at Christchurch Hospital. Year 8 raised a fantastic £789.40 through a number of events including a Bake Off, cake sales, summer fair, ice cream and smoothie sales and a tombola. The money raised will provide essential multidisciplinary services such as Community Specialist Palliative Care Sisters, Family Support Team, Day Centre, and Rehabilitation team and Chaplaincy. We were delighted to welcome Neal Williams, Trust Secretary at our assembly on 23rd November to learn about the inspiring work carried out at the unit.

A huge WELL DONE to the Year Group.

Mrs Pearson, Mrs Bentley, Ms Leitch, Mrs Stoodley, Mrs Gunner, Miss Whiteside, Mr Mant, Mr Castle, Mr Barnes, Miss Lorek, Mr Pitman.

Word of the Week – A Review

Quiz:

Let's look back on the "Words of the Week" that we have had the past few weeks. Can you remember their meanings?

Look at the sentences and decide which one best fits each sentence.

1. The dog's paw hurts a lot. It's very debilitating/deliberate/awe-inspiring for him.
2. After watching the game, our expectation/verdict/virtue was that the team played well.
3. Some people say that the death of Romeo and Juliet was clumsy/prepared/futile. However, it did bring the families together.
4. Is America adopting a clever/inspiring/belligerent attitude towards North Korea?
5. The view from Highcliffe beach is futile/belligerent/awe-inspiring.
6. Changing the school uniform is a/an beautiful/elevated/audacious move.
7. Sea levels are rising and storms are getting worse, so it is futile/interesting/belligerent to build sea-defences now to prevent coastal erosion.
8. The loveliness/beauty/belligerence of some people on the rugby field really shocks me sometimes.
9. Sending the first humans to the moon was a beautiful/odd/audacious project.
10. What genes can cause a useful/debilitating/defibrillating illness?
